Build your own careers page

Rise Recruiting makes it easy to build a custom careers page for your company. The intuitive interface makes managing your job postings a breeze: simply add or modify a posting and it is instantly updated on your careers page.

Drive targeted applications from Indeed

Extend your reach to more candidates with automatic job postings to Indeed. Our seamless integration allows you to instantly post to Indeed's job boards and receive all applications from Indeed directly in Rise, helping you keep everything in one place.

Manage your recruitment pipeline

Get a bird's eye view of your applicant pipeline for all your open positions so you always know who's at each stage. For each job posting, you can customize your application pipeline stages to suit your hiring process.

Evaluate the best talent as a team

Rise gives you everything you need to review candidates as a team: add and share comments to job applicants and accept or reject them whenever you're ready. Plus, get a complete history of changes to applicant status made by your team members.

Sync with Rise Onboarding

The integrated, all-in-one Rise platform makes it quick and easy to move hired candidates along your pipeline. Once a candidate is hired, you can easily transfer their personal details to Rise Onboarding to kick off your new hire onboarding process.

Cloud storage for all your job applications

Store all of your job applications in the cloud for quick and easy access. Rise Recruiting gives you unlimited storage, making it easy to access and filter job applications whenever you need them.

We look forward to working with you!
